Former Resident Kills Himself

Officer Paul Lynch was notified last night at 6 o'clock by Irving Rice of Clark street, a fireman on the B.&M. R.R. that a man was seen slumped in the brush near Eames street. Rice reported that while coming up on the 4:45 from Boston he noticed a man crouched down in bushes near the tracks. Lynch notified Sgt. Sidelink in the cruiser who proceeded to the described section found John Patrick Foley, 45, of 35 Chambers street, Boston, formerly a resident of Woburn street, Wilmington. A rope was tied around his neck to a low limb of a tree. The weight of the body stretched the rope and thus Foley was in a seated position when found. The section is not far from where Foley formerly lived. Acting Chief Hoban was notified and stood guard at the scene until Dr. Richardson, Medical Examiner of Wakefield arrived, who declared the case a suicide.

Wilmington residents who knew Foley, a leather factory worker, liked him and said he had a rather pleasing personality. He had been married a year to a Woburn girl, and was missing from home 1½ weeks. The Medical Examiner said he couldn't have been dead over 24 hours, and he was last seen getting off the bus at 6:45 p. m. Wednesday night at Perry's Corner.

PEARL: COME HOME

It was all my fault, Pearl. I admit I was surly and grumpy. No wonder that even the kids were scared of me. But everything's better now. I've found out that constipation caused by lack of bulk in my diet can be licked! Believe me, I advise others who suffer the same way to do what I did: just eat a bowlful of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day and drink plenty of water. They say it's America's most famous laxative cereal—believe me, it sure gets my vote. Or make it up into muffins—they taste grand too... Come home, dear, and find a bran new man waiting for you. That's me—your ever-lovin' husband, JOE.

Things I Never Knew 'Til Now

(Because the teachers were too pretty)

That Shakespeare's most loquacious character was Hamlet, to whom he gave 1,569 speaking lines. (Showing off again that he can read!)

That in Indianapolis, Ind., it's illegal for a mustached man to kiss anyone. (Mustache my lawyer about that!)

That Oscar Wilde's full name was Oscar Fingal O'Flahertie Wills Wilde. (They called him "Whoopss!" for short.)

That according to the department of commerce the American public spends 400 million dollars a year on restaurant tips.

That the brain isn't mentioned in the Bible. (Now he's trying to tell us he reads the Bible!)

That in West Cork, Ireland, relief clients who are toothless and unable to chew the free beef are given whisky instead. (Mebbe that's why they say Ireland is "a little bit of heaven.")

That when someone once asked Heywood Brown what was the most important qualification for a columnist he replied: "To own a waste basket." (You're telling me!)

That you can forecast the weather yourself by observing the change in the wind's direction.

(If the change is in a clockwise direction, the weather will improve. If it's counter-clockwise, carry your umbrella!)

That Dante, the Italian poet who wrote "The Divine Comedy," trained his pet cat to sit on a table and hold a burning candle in its paws while he read. (It must have been the cats!)

That a woman's brain is 140 grams lighter than a man's. (So will you kindly keep still and listen?)

That the reason "Q" is the only letter omitted from the telephone dial is because it would look so much like "O" that people would be confused and dial wrong numbers. (And I do mean Q!)

That the Michigan State college curriculum now includes a course for blacksmiths. (Shoe 'nuff!)

That you weigh more in an elevator when it is going up. (Is there anything that man doesn't know?)

That if you have trouble loosening tight screws and bolts, a few drops of peroxide will do the trick. (Ask me anything!)

That the color ink you use is supposed to be a clue to your character. Black ink shows sound opinions—blue ink, a happy balance between intellect and sentimentality—violet ink, impulsiveness and choleric temperament—and red ink reveals obstinacy, quarrelsomeness and a tendency to dominate others. (It also shows that business isn't so good.)

That if prisoners in Mexico City are married, they may receive overnight visits from their wives and are given special quarters away from the cell block. (Latins are so romantic!)

That a Hindu trick for wooing slumber is to close the eyes and concentrate on looking inward toward the nose—supposed to put you to sleep in less than two minutes. (Who'll count my sheep for me while I'm fooling around with Hindu tricks?)

It is very evident that a spirit of community cooperativeness is spreading through the town of Wilmington. More and more people are starting to be interested in the problems and affairs of the town, thinking not for the betterment of a few individuals, but rather for the town as a whole. If this spirit is made to endure, it will mean the making of our town. Wilmington always has been a nice town in which to live. Not every town may boast of a railroad depot as well as a State highway through its center, a lake already lovely in scenic beauty not to mention other possibilities if properly cared for.

Hard as it is to face the truth, we believe that only the surface has been skimmed regarding Wilmington's possibilities. Many towns with far less to offer have surged ahead all around us, in fact in the past it was quite noticeable that Wilmington was being left far in the background. What is the underlying of this?

Perhaps what has been lacking in the past is the wonderful spirit of cooperativeness that was so apparent during the Old Home Days, and what a splendid success the Rotarians made! Men working together with a single purpose in mind, not self-attainment of aggression, but rather for a cause — a dental clinic for the children of Wilmington. And, when others witnessed the earnestness of their endeavor, they joined with them to help in every possible way, thus giving Old Home Days an impetus which was unbeatable.

A pulsating movement aiming towards progressiveness, development, as well as general betterment is being born in Wilmington. Let's work together to see that nothing retards it in any way. We will all benefit by a spirit of cooperativeness.

When a sudden accident occurs in a home, the first thought, after some of the panic subsides, is the ambulance. However, despite the urgency of many accidents that occur at home, there are rules and regulations that govern the use of the town ambulance. To save valuable time as well as unnecessary delay, the safest procedure is to call a doctor immediately, who in turn will make the ambulance arrangements. In other words, the Wilmington ambulance cannot come to a person's home unless a doctor calls and orders it first.

We thought we would make this point clear as so few of the townspeople are familiar with this procedure. If a doctor is called and you must go to hospital. Remind him to get in touch with police so that they will have the authority to bring the ambulance to your home.

Many Wilmington residents and visitors were quite enthusiastic about the Grange Fair this year. Mr. Edward Dutile, Mirror advertising manager had quite a thrilling ride over Glen Road when he was carrying a tomato display as well as a 4 Ft Cactus plant in his car which was going on exhibition today. Eddy's beginning to wonder if it was worth the battle. He had two very sore thumbs which he got when he was removing the giant cactus from the car.

BIG BRASS SHINES IN KOREA . . . General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, supreme commander of the Allied forces in the Pacific, is shown reviewing Korean sailors as he arrived at Seoul's Kimp'o airport for the proclamation of the American-sponsored republic of Korea. Three years ago Korea was liberated from 45 years of Japanese rule. With MacArthur is Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, U. S. military commander in Korea. The trip to Korea marked the second time MacArthur has left Japan since the beginning of the occupation. The other instance was a flight to Manila to attend the birth of the postwar Philippine republic. Thus, MacArthur has been in on the establishment of two foreign republics since the end of the war.

MILLENNIUMS OF RECONSTRUCTION . . . This is the avenue of ram-headed sphinxes at Karnak, Egypt. From ancient times repairs and reconstruction have been going on at Karnak. But despite the destruction of the centuries there is no other building in the world that can match the Temple of Amon at Karnak. The majestic edifices have been injured and rebuilt during the course of the ages. Construction probably began with the era of the Pyramids, 5,000 years ago, and continued for almost 3,000 years. At the turn of the last century the flood of the Nile weakened the ground on which the Temple of Amon stands, and in 1899 many of the columns of the great Hall of Columns, one of the wonders of the world, fell. They were all re-erected by 1908, however.

FORTUNE SMILES ON LITTLE MINING HAMLET . . . The main square of Perryopolis, Pa., tiny hamlet in the shadow of Pittsburgh's gigantic steel mills, looks much like many another American small town. But there's a big difference, although it doesn't show yet in a photograph. The civic lot of Perryopolis will be enhanced soon by an estimated 20 million dollars. The late Mary Fuller Frazier, a native of the community, willed the greater part of her vast estate to Perryopolis for civic improvements. The street light in the middle of the square is the only one in town.

HOW TO BE HAPPY THOUGH IN POLITICS . . . New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey momentarily displaces the cares of state and campaign strategy with the woes and aggravations of golf. The Republican candidate for the presidency is shown here making—or at least attempting—a long putt on the last green of the Albany country club. He soon will forsake the greens for the political rough when he starts the fall campaign that he hopes will win the presidential election for him.

OF THEE WE SING . . . Far from the terrors and persecutions of Soviet Russian enemies, sons and daughters of anti-Soviet Russian families sing a loud and clear anthem of liberty at the annual children's festival held at Reed farm, the Tolstoy foundation refuge for White Russians in Rockland county, N. Y. It was at this farm that Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina first sought refuge from the Soviets.

RUSSIAN WALK LEAVES THREE ON BASE . . . This stern-visaged threesome used to be a foursome. Together, the quartet—representing the Big Four nations—would stand guard happily at the Berlin Kommandatura, seat of the Allied governing body in Berlin. But the disgruntled Russians walked out of the council, took their sentry with them and said they weren't coming back. So that left the (left to right) British, American and French representatives in charge.

British Admission of DP's
Great Britain now is admitting selected displaced persons at the rate of 5,000 a month. She already has accepted 50,000, twice as many as any other country. The British are giving these newcomers regular instruction in the currency and customs of the land and in the necessary techniques required for their industries. The displaced persons, in short, are being deliberately integrated into the life of post-war Britain.

of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

The Once Over A RUSSIAN 'RESCUE'

By H. I. PHILLIPS

"We want you to be free. Nobody has the right to deprive you of your liberty." It was the Russian consul speaking to Ivan Hadenoff, Soviet citizen, who had decided he wanted to stay in America. "So we're putting you in this top floor room and locking it from the outside," the consul added.

"But," began Ivan.

"As a citizen of Russia you must be guaranteed complete freedom and we are not letting any American interfere. Stand away from that window and don't try to communicate with anybody!" said the consul.

"I don't understand," said Ivan. "I wish to be protected by America. I desire to stay in this country."

"You make it very clear that you are being intimidated," said the consul. "Somebody must be frightening you."

"Can I help it if I find the American way different from what I had thought? I like it," said Ivan.

"Every word you say convinces me that the Americans have kidnaped you and are holding you by force," said the consul, double bolting the door and ordering some men to place bars around the windows.

"But it is right here, in the Russian consulate, that I am being detained against my will," sobbed Ivan.

"I have it officially from the Kremlin that you are not being detained here," said the consul. "You are being rescued!"

"But all these locks and bars and bolts," said Ivan.

"You can take Molotov's word for it. You have been snatched into captivity by American gangsters in a most ruthless violation of your personal rights."

Ivan wrung his hands.

"There must be some mistake," he said. "No Americans have violated my rights. I have never seen an American gangster, except in the movies."

"You haven't seen the latest editorial in Pravda or you would know you had been in the custody of American gangsters up to this hour," admonished the consul.

Ivan dropped into a chair and wept.

"If you go on this way I shall be compelled to feel that you are the type of person who does not deserve rescue. Moscow is determined to save you if it KILLS YOU," said the consul.

"That's what I'm afraid of!" wept Ivan.

Prisoners Prosper

New Jersey prison authorities have made a ruling that convicts while incarcerated may not write or work for outside pay. It seems some of them have been making much more money in stir than the taxpayers who were being protected from them.

One prisoner, an author, made $35,000 in three years. He is very indignant at the ban. We sympathize with him. It's tough enough to have to do a stretch in the hoosegow without having to do it on a low income.

Sport Highlights

Followers of the Wilmington high football team were treated to a pleasant surprise last Tuesday afternoon when Jim Landers, versatile back donned his blue and white togs for his initial appearance of the season. With Jim's appearance this gives Coach DiTeso five experienced backs. Add two less experienced backs to this list and you should have a very closely contested battle for the starting backfield positions.

Having gone through the tough two weeks conditioning period, the team is rounding into shape and now must settle down to acquire the finer points of football. For the earlier part of this week passing and kicking drills were the main issue. Three capable passes, Buster Spear, Bill Chisholm and Jim Landers are expected to share the passing duties, while Buster Spear is expected to shoulder the punting assignment.

Bill Chisholm, a quarterback was switched to a halfback position where his speed could be more utilized and this move showed to good advantage in the scrimmage against Reading High.

The Alumni football team held its first practice session at the common Thursday night. Although the turnout could have been better the team held a signal drill under Coach John Ritchie. Monday night is the next practice.

as well as races for junior and senior classes.

Due to no response to the advertising for candidates, The Queen of Old Home Days and her suite were picked by a secret group of Wilmington Rotarians. Pretty Joan Preston of Shawsheen avenue was chosen the queen and her attendants included Dorothy Froton Beatrice Weatherbee, Barbara Moore, Anna Grant, Pearl Newhouse, Marjorie Johnston.

The winner of the bathing beauty contest was Miss Virginia Mafucci of Watertown and runners-up in order were 2nd, Pearl Newhouse, Wilmington, and 3rd, Lorraine Ahern, Wilmington. Other contestants in beauty contest included Helen Clements, Edith Sullivan, Dorothy Baltusis, Elaine Ahern, Helen Rothwell, Eleanor Fidler.

Sunday evening everyone thoroughly enjoyed the concert presented by Redmans Band from Wakefield.

The Old Home Days Parade Monday was the most spectacular event of the entire Holiday Weekend. Fifty-four floats slowly moved from Wildwood street up Middlesex avenue to Church street, thence Main street to Grove avenue and finally to the Silver Lake Park. Mr. Henry Porter, parade marshal and past Pres. of the Rotary Club, led the parade looking very debonair in top hat and tails, followed by five Rotary Club officers. The Queen's float was very impressive. She looked regal seated on a throne attired with robe and crown, surrounded by 6 pretty attendants attired in lovely evening gowns. Her float was mounted on a truck and decorated with red, white, and blue streamers. Each float in the parade showed much time had been given to color detail and appropriateness. The painted Indians who gave an exhibition war dance for the crowd were members of Redmen's band. Notables were escorted in horse-drawn carriages, and auto relics of days gone by preceded the latest streamlined models. Humorous clowns zipped in and out, on their gaudily decorated cycles. There were many beautiful floats covered with fresh flowers, or gay streamers, but the most impressive was the memorial float dedicated to the veterans of World War II who made the supreme sacrifice.

Monday evening the last tickets on the automobile were placed in the electrical drum at 11 p. m. and 15 minutes after the last ticket was in the drum, Mr. Stephen Bean rolled a die which contained 4 numbers. The number coming uppermost was 2, which was the signal for the 2nd attendant to the queen to step forward, roll the die, and when No. 3 came uppermost, the queen herself stepped forward to draw ticket from No. 3 door of the electrical drum. Tim Cunningham, Auto ticket chairman opened No. 3 door of drum and the Old Home Days Queen placed her arm within the drum and selected a ticket, No. 13,147 which was the number of the winning ticket. It belonged to Marjorie Calnan, 199 Glen Road, winner of the 1948 Plymouth. The queen was presented with a check for $25, which she returned immediately to Stephen Bean, Wilmington Rotary President, as her donation to the Wilmington Dental Clinic. Members of the queen's suite received boxes of candy. The Wilmington people are unanimous in congratulating the Wilmington Rotary Club for the splendid effort made by its members and assisting organizations, and for demonstrating such community spirit and cooperation.

Rotarians Thank Townspeople

President Stephen Bean conducted the meeting Wednesday of the Rotary Club at Betterment hall. The Rotarians expressed their gratitude and thanks to all individuals and organizations of Wilmington for the wonderful support and assistance given at the Old Home Days celebration. It was declared that the midway was a distinct financial success as well as a fine community effort.

A luncheon was served and music was enjoyed under the leadership of Michael Schelzo with Bill Babine at the piano. Earl Sylvester, Old Home Days Chairman, gave a brief report as to the financial result of the celebration. Three guests were present, Rotarian Roger Smart of Woburn, Henry Blair of So. Tewksbury who was a guest of H. Pickering, and John C. Boston, the sound truck man at the celebration. Mr. Boston brought a recording apparatus and recorded the brief speeches made at the meeting. After entertaining the Rotarians with popular recordings, Mr. Boston presented the President with the recording disc of speeches to be preserved in the club archives.

PENNY SALE BY ASSOCIATION

East Wilmington Improvement Association met at Robinson's Tuesday evening. A report was given on the bean supper held at the Silver Lake Betterment hall Saturday Sept. 4th. Entire proceeds from the successful affair will be donated to the Wilmington Rotary Club for the Dental Clinic.

The Association will hold a Penny Sale at Robinson's on Wildwood street, October 5th. The names of Mr. and Mrs. James Mahar of Wildwood street were proposed as new members.

Miss Olive Merritt and Mrs. Charles Traynor were in charge of a meeting of the LBS of the Congregational Church Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Merritt on Middlesex avenue. Fourteen members and one guest were present. Deserts were served and plans were made for members to visit the Walker Home for Missionaries. Food was solicited for the October 5th. Harvest supper to be held at the Congregational Church.
